So sorry to read about your dad. He was so energetic I thought he would keep working for many more years. He certainly loved his family and alway spoke of you with great pride. He always had great ideas on how to improve things and maintain varies historical structures. Give my best to his wife. With sympathy, Natasha Madsen, former Manti mayor

My association with Keith started in 1985 as his banker. It developed into a relationship of good friends. We talked of life, families, faith, and work. Keith was a hard worker who loved his family, his employees, his friends, and his Savior who he served so faithfully. Keith is a good man who I feel blessed to call my friend. My condolences to his family.

Keith was my bishop during those 11 years in Cannon 3rd Ward. I also knew and loved Ruth Oborn and her husband and family. He had a very good influence on my son, as I went to church without a husbands help. He was a MucH LOVED bishop. He especially took care of the widows. I was looking forward to seeing him and Ruth when Ruth's granddaughter would be blessed. Emily and Steven live in my ward. The pandemic will probably not allow a public blessing. My married name when I lived in the ward was McConkie. I send my love and condolences to all his family. Loraine McConkie Crow Roberts

So very grateful to have known this wonderful man and his amazing family. He changed our family when he friended my father and showed him a true living example of being a member or the church. Fantastic memories of Bishop Mackay and so many fun activities he provided for the youth of our ward. We love you all so much. We send our love to you.

Keith's obituary made reference to the legacy he has left in the temples and other magnificent stone monuments he had a hand in building over his eventful lifetime. However, during a visit I had with him several months ago, I mentioned to Keith what I believe to be his greatest legacy - that of the love, kindness and directional leadership he extended to those of us fortunate enough to be "his boys" during the 11 years he served as Bishop of the Cannon 3rd Ward. The tears that welled up in his eyes at that moment let me know he agreed. Thanks Keith, for this eternal legacy. I have had many Bishops during my life, but to me, Bishop Keith Mackay will forever be "my Bishop."

keith - He will always be known as a special client of mine at KLS-Tv. The many trips we went on is a special part of my life. I was surprised at his young age and he will always be remembered as a close friend. Thanks for the gospel in our lives and I look forward to seeing him again. My heart goes out to his wonderful wife and we both know that we will see him soon. May the Lord bless you at this time. A friend always, Russ Sorensen

Keith and surviving family, Keith was a dear friend, mentor and father figure to me. Keiths kindness and talents have and will influence me throughout my life and eternally. I was introduced to Keith while he was working on the Manti Temple in 1996. Keith never let an opportunity pass to teach me. His passion for his trade and love for life will always be a shining example to me. I know of no other person at his age who worked more tirelessly and with more passion than Keith. Knowing Keith, he has already been put to work teaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ and making sure that the stone work is perfectly done. Keiths memory will forever be sweet to me.
