

Randall Sinclair Wright

March 10, 1953 ~ Feb. 18, 2022

Since Elementary School Randy and I have had a friendship. As kids we fist fought and made up and argued and schemed all kinds of ideas. You were a crazy arm chair philosopher with a cleaver intellect. You could weave and knit an idea as you zigged and zagged through a lofty ethereal dimension that few us could keep up with. I enjoyed your explorations. Enjoy the beginning of your eternal sojourn and may the Spirit world be kind to you. May your sisters and Clark fill their hearts with the good times. Ron Beck
