I met Rebecca back in the 70's when mama Lovato would take a bunch of us to the YWCA after school. I reconnected with her a few years ago through Facebook. She sure had a way with words, when you were talking with her she always made you feel special and at the end would say she loved you. She was one in a million,, I will miss her so much!! Lovato family thanks so much for the childhood memories my condolences to you all. Jesus you were her pride and joy she was so proud of you!! Rest In Peace my dear friend, until we meet again-Bella

I was deeply saddened when I watched the video Rebecca shared in the hospital. To see her suffering and expressing her love for everyone made me cry. When I heard of her passing, my thoughts immediately were of her sisters, Jesus, Chepina, and mother. My heart ached for you all. She was so kind and loving. You're all in my prayers. She took serious pride and care of all those she loved. She touched my heart in such a beautiful way. A genuine person. Deepest condolences.

- Maxine Isabel Lucero

May God bless her family and bring them comfort. I will miss Rebecca and her wonderful stories. Each time I sat with her, she mesmerized me with her storytelling. There was something about how she talked that I would be spellbound by her. She was such a beauty inside and out. I am honored to have been one of her friends. We didn't get to spend a lot of time together, but I will treasure those times. She co-produced a beautiful and spectacular documentary about one of Utah's Latina artist.

Rebecca was a wonderful woman that I had the pleasure of meeting when we worked together. She was so sweet and we became great friends. We shared a passion for crafts, specifically cross stitching and would share our work with one another. Although we no longer worked together we remained friends on social media and spoke often. I will truly miss her.

I am going to miss Rebecca. Even though she was in pain she sent love and words of strength to me. Her last message to me said: "Be strong and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the Lord." (Psalms 31:24)

- Amy Everhart

Rebecca, as she was called by her father will be missed by all who knew her. Now she will be united with him and along with Denise and Joe may she rest in peace.

- Dionizio Aguayo

Rebecca was my dear friend. I worked with her at Connexion Point and during that time she became family to me. When life got hard for me she helped me and she encouraged me to always do better for myself and to always know that I can accomplish anything. I always would tell her how much I admired her courage and appreciated all the love she always showed me. She showed me that anything is possible as a female and you can make it through anything. She was a person who I would run to for advice and someone who believed in me. I will forever hold her in my heart. To her family myself and my family are keeping you in our prayers. Rebecca is now an Angel in heaven just as she was here on earth.
