- Susan Barrett

Richard was a great man and very loving and kind hearted and would help anyone else out but he would also give you advice on things you would ask about and he would tell you how it was and how it would end and try to prove him wrong was a thing he would let you do but when the end result was like he said he would let you hit rock bottom turn around give you a hand to help you up and tell you I told you so and smile with a twinkle in his eye and let you know he was there to help. I am so glad that I have had the privilege to know the Logan family for 30 plus years and be one of the many extra kids that they had and to be able to call Lynda mom as she has very much earned it and to call Richard dad as he has very much earned it !! Richard was a dad to me that I never had and no matter how old I was if I needed some advice or wanted to talk to him and just have him listen he was there he was always willing to listen and not judge but he always made sure he got all the information before he would answer or respond to the conversation at hand. R.I.P. Richard (Dad) you have fought a long hard battle and your body grew tired and needs to rest we will miss you greatly everyday and all the special moments when you would walk in the room and make us laugh but we will meet again when our time is through until then join the rest of the family that is there with you to reach out with open arms to welcome you back but we love you and miss you all the time.
