

Richard Truman Huffman

March 7, 1934 ~ November 15, 2025

We started visiting Dick right after Ellen died. We enjoyed our frequent visits with him in his home and later when he moved to the assisted living center. We always had great discussions with him about his life, his family, and his opinions about what was going on in the world. We grew to love him quickly! During our last visit we had a very open discussion about death and what we thought we knew about it. He expressed his curiosity about what it would really be like and he was actually looking forward to finding out and seemed ready to go! WE WILL MISS HIM! XOXOXO
