I am deeply sorry for the loss of Rita. Please, receive the most sincere and deepest condolences from myself and the Bernal Family. R. I.P. Rita, prayers ■■♥■ Dali and Family

Rita was my late wife Liz's wonderful mother. She was always such a great a joy to be around. Rita stayed upbeat and positive regardless of what she was enduring and that is something quite difficult to do that I strive to achieve. It was something she made look effortless. Her glowing smile and positive disposition will be sorely missed and the world is a bit less bright with her gone. Rest in peace Rita. Thank you for always being amazingly welcoming to me. You are missed.

I haven't seen Rita in over 20 years, but she was our next-door neighbor when I was in kindergarten. She was my mother's best friend and likely helped keep her sane during the 18 months my dad spent in Saudi Arabia. Rita used to go for "walks around the block" with my mom, and she not only tolerated, but welcomed all the neighborhood children tramping through her house and basement - including during "Quiet Time" which was when the mothers had orange squares hung on the house doors and we children were not to go visiting. I vividly remember being 4 years old, crying because I had been accidentally left behind when my family made a weekend trip to Logan. I immediately went to Rita, who sat with me on the porch and let me know she would take care of me until my family came back (which thankfully was probably about 15 minutes instead of the whole weekend). She was well loved by all the many neighborhood children and my mother. Condolences and blessings to all the Collins family.
