

Robert James Bradshaw

October 6, 1952 ~ March 3, 2021

Who do I write condolences to, the family or Bob? I feel the pain of loss for both. I feel helpless to ease the pain you're feeling but I'm trying. Sending you lots of love and healing prayers. Bob truly lived a loving and giving life. He made our world a better place. "Bob", thank you for leaving such a great, kind and loving footprint. You lived what you believed. I miss you and thank you for reminding me, word for word, of that song we made up while "Hiking to the beaver ponds"; I saved that scrap of paper I wrote it on. Love you all. Rollene

My friend Bob and Family, I was truly saddened hearing about your passing. It's been many years since we last saw one another, however you were often in my thoughts. You will certainly be missed by all that knew you, and yes you absolutely made the world a better place. I'm grateful to have spent some of mine in yours!

- Cary Forrest

Ali , I am so sorry for your loss. No words I say can help you my dad passed in 2019 and my world fell apart. You are so young to loss your dad. I just tell myself he is in a better place than here. Thank you for being such a good friend to my children . What would I do if you did not take care of my Ty , Ali and Dru ? Love you so much! ■❤■■

We are heartbroken to hear of the passing of Brother Bradshaw. He was always so willing to help anyone in our neighborhood. We were the lucky recipients of his many talents, including a modified kitchen table that he helped us fit into our dining room. He always had a smile a kind word for those around him. He will be sorely missed in our neighborhood.

I can not express enough love to Camille and her family in the loss of her dear son and brother to the family. I know how deeply he was loved by all of your family. He lived such a beautiful life and was an example of Christ -like love to all he knew. i pray Heavenly Fathers richest blessings will be upon each of you as he will be missed every day. My love and prayers go out to each of you at the time and in the days to come. My love, Joyce Craig

Bob was someone I just want to be around!!! It didn't matter if it was laying sod, fixing water pipe, or on a cruise, I just wanted to be around him. What a great, Father, Husband, Grandfather, and Friend. He was certainly all that was stated in the obituary, but also much more. His love for his family and friends was boundless. His cheerfulness was contagious and his friendship and example cherished.

Wow me and Kris are blown away from this news we have known bishop Bradshaw for some time now and will truly miss his welcoming smile and God like joy for life. Peggy and family with my heart and soul my deeps condolences may our lord know the true angel he has before him now. I will miss him so much. thank you for all you did for us Bishop Bradshaw may you rest in peace my friend.

- Rudy Bernal

I am so sorry for your loss. Please always remember the many happy times and smile. He would want you to be happy always. It does get a little easier over time. My best always.

What can one say to capture the feelings of sadness and loss when a great individual passes on? Bob is a truly kind, creative, talented and wonderful man. Such a unique soul can't be replaced; all we can do is to try our best to learn from his excellent example and attempt to fill in our meager ways the tremendous void caused by his passing. What greater gift dost God bestow, What greater goodness can we know Than Christ-like friends, whose gentle ways, Strengthen our faith, enrich our days. May the Lord bless Peggy, the children and your posterity with peace, love, patience and strengthened family bonds in these difficult times. Bob, we will certainly miss you.

Bob was just a lovely guy all around. We actually looked forward to the days he was coming to work at our house—and we couldn’t say that about everyone who’s worked here. But Bob was always such a gentleman. He was always happy, friendly, eager to please and good at what he did. Plus, we enjoyed hearing his stories. We will miss him so much. Our love goes to his loved ones. We wish you peace.

Dear Bradshaw Family, We are heartbroken to hear of Bob's passing. Kathy just had some major surgery, so we won't be able to come to the viewing or funeral, but we wanted you to know that our thoughts and prayers are with you. Bob was such a great man, who was kind to all and he touched our lives for good. We love you and hope you find comfort in knowing that you will be reunited with him. We also hope you find comfort in the gospel of Christ and in knowing that you are all loved. With love and sadness, Jeff and Kathy Maxfield

We hold great memories of the time, the 80's and 90's, when our families were in close contact with each other. The time that the foundation was build for Boon Edam Inc. We thank Bob and his family and wish the family all the strength needed in dealing with this great loss. Yours sincerely, Family Huber Royal Boon Edam International

Bob's valiant health struggle is now over, and he is now free of the pain he has endured. A favorite cousin forever, Bob was the epitome of love, energy, adventures, happiness and family man. Bradshaws, Framptons, Overtons were a triple crown combination when all together throughout the years. Cousins rivaled one another to have the honor of hosting Bob when he visited, and we all gathered 'round for the laughter and giggles. Such a beautiful couple, with a wonderful family, Bob and Peggy's generosity with time, love, comfort and warmth never wavered. The children and grandchildren are beneficiaries of boundless love throughout the generations. We grieve his loss along with you -- and we are all better to have known and loved Bishop Bob. Our hearts are with You. To Love Like Bob is to know The Lord. May peace be with you all.

Dear Bradshaw Family and Friends of Bob, I am in Denver awaiting the Zoom link to open to Bob's services, and thinking that Heaven certainly got itself another beautiful angel today. I have such loving memories of my cousin Bob -- what a wonderful, kind, funny playmate he was when we were little. We lost touch a bit over the years, but I am forever grateful to his wife for making him the wonderful family and happiness he deserved. Wishing you all peace as you grieve. Sheri Sense

My heart is so heavy upon learning of Bob's passing. But also full of admiration and love for your family. Bob was such a good person, he always was. The funeral was so full of love, I could see Bob in the faces of his grandchildren. I am so grateful for the Plan of Happiness and the promises for your eternal family. Bob loved life and probably had few regrets..how many men can say that. His life was beautiful. What a grand heavenly reunion!

- Susan Turpin Tolman

Dear Peggy, and family, I am so sorry to hear that Bob has past away. We have known eachother since 1986 and although the last 20 years we just had contact sometimes I still have pictures of the good times I spend with Bob and many of you. Please accept hereby my condolences and hope that you find the strenght to carry the loss of a special men.

Dear Lance, I was so sorry to hear about your father’s passing, it seemed to come much too quickly after I learned about his diagnosis. It’s heartbreaking to lose a parent, even with the blessing and knowledge we have of being reunited someday. His obituary was a beautiful tribute and I truly had a sense for what a wonderful man and father he was. May God bless all of you during this difficult time and know we are thinking of and praying for you.
