

Robert Lee Chambers

Feb. 26, 1938 ~ July 23, 2024

I will always remember Robert Chambers as the father of one of my best friends Mike Chambers and the Stake President of my youth. He was a man filled with Faith and Fun. He had a great sense of humor and also did not suffer fools! He will definitely be missed! Love to all the Chambers family. Marc Marriott

We offer sincere condolences Sister Chambers. May the Lord bless you and buoy you up as you celebrate the life of your eternal companion. You both are such an example of faith and commitment. You are in our prayers.

Sorry to hear about Bob's passing. I'll always consider him one of the best Sacramento speakers. I was shocked to read Sharon and Bob first lived in Silver Spring, MD as that's my birthplace — small world! I wish you all comfort & peace at this time. — shanna

What a wonderful man who chose a wonderful woman. Together you have created a wonderful and faithful family creating good and spreading blessings wherever you have been.

- Toni Mitchell

We will miss this wonderful man who always offered insightful and uplifting comments in church classes. His wisdom and testimony of Christ will live on.

Rebeca and I were deeply saddened to learn of the passing of our beloved brother, Robert Lee Chambers. Please accept our most heartfelt condolences and know our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this profoundly challenging time. Although we didn't have the opportunity to know Brother Robert Lee Chambers as closely as we would have liked, we can envision his extraordinary life, characterized by dedication, compassion, and unshakable faith in the Lord. His legacy of love and service to his family and community will endure as a testament to the remarkable life he lived, embodying the teachings of Jesus Christ. During moments of loss, we are reminded of the eternal truths our Savior, Jesus Christ, taught about life, death, and the promise of resurrection. May you find solace in the assurance of our Heavenly Father's plan of salvation and the reunion it promises us with our loved ones. We pray that you and your family will feel the comforting embrace of our Heavenly Father during this time of mourning and that the Holy Spirit will bring you peace and understanding. We are reminded, especially in such moments, that our Heavenly Father is intimately familiar with the pain of loss. He has assured us, "Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted." (Matthew 5:4; 3 Nephi 12:4). May this divine promise bring you peace during this tender time. In conclusion, we pray that the Lord will bless you with comfort, strength, and an abundance of peace. May the cherished memories of Brother Robert Lee Chambers' love and light continue to inspire and guide you all. We hope for your well-being and peace in the days to come. With the deepest sympathy and love, Jose and Rebeca Alonso
