I’m so sorry to hear of Robert’s passing, he was such a good friend and sure a kind man. He always took the high road, no matter the situation Robert was a builder, he is truly loved and will be missed. Another valiant son has been call home to his God. My heart aches today.

Dear Sue, We are so sorry. Thank you for your amazing example of faith, composure, and endurance over what has been an excruciatingly difficult time. We miss Rob very much—his wit, his faith, his adherence to the truth and to righteousness, and his friendship. But we are also very glad we still have you here in mortality and in our ward. As sad as this is, we imagine it must also be a solemnly joyful time for you, for as the Lord says: 46 And it shall come to pass that those that die in me shall not taste of death, for it shall be sweet unto them; (D&C 42) And we love these words: 4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. 5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. (Revelation 21) May God bless you. Love, Scott and Callean

We are so shocked at the passing of Rob. We are so sorry for your lose. That had to be very hard on you Susan. I'm sure after such a long battle it was good Heavenly Father called him home. We have to be so grateful that you will be together again. Our faith is a rock to hold onto. Ken and I are going to be out of town on a cruise and we are sorry we won't be able to come to the funeral. God bless you in your time of grief.

Robert and I were companions in the Texas San Antonio Mission. He was so fun to work with. He had a great love for the wonderful people down in the Rio Grande Valley. Because of that we never had a bad day in our area. We worked hard and loved every minute. Thanks for the great memories. I love you and will miss you. PS- thank you Sue for being such a loving and kind companion to Robert. Steve Soelberg
