

Robert Thomas "Tommy" Gardner

April 29, 2004 ~ June 4, 2024

Tommy may have passed from this life, but he will certainly not be forgotten. His sense of humor, his joy for life, his personality have all made a permanent impact on those he knew. I am so grateful to have known Tommy. I am sure the grief we feel on this side of the veil is balanced by the great joy on the other side at his homecoming. We will miss you Tommy, but we won't forget.

I remember so often, My kids talking about "baby Tommy, baby Tommy". Joshua, Elisabeth and Peter really love thier cousin soo much. The news broke my heart as soon as I saw it. My thoughts and my heart and my prayers of comfort go out to all his family, especially his parents, Robbie and Kimmy. They are such kind people. I know they will feel the Lords embrace and often feel thier sweet boys spirit close by. Thank God and His Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, who has conquered death and overcome the grave that we can be together again as families. Together forever never to be separated again. Elder Tommy and his companion continue In the service of the great Jehovah. Laboring with loved ones past, in the greatest and most noble work, as missionaries do. Engaging with the Lord, to save the souls of men on the other side of the veil, in the world of spirits. God be with all Tommys loved ones until they meet again and embrace him, not only in spirit, but with all the senses again. Sincerely, with love and care ♥■■■■■.

His smile was gentle and angelic. Although he was tall, his quiet tender spirit and heart was too big to fit his mortal body. If anyone would ever be called home early due to having a celestial spirit it would be Tommy. Too good for this broken world. Our hearts break, our sould grieve and our prayers rest with Rob, Kim, Cameron, and James.

God be with you Tommy till we meet again.

Gardner Family, My name is John Martin and I am from the Glendive, Montana Stake, Sidney, Montana Ward. I only met Elder Gardner once here in Sidney, Montana at our Chapel. He had come down from Poplar, Montana with his companion elder Stilwell for a baptism of a lady that elders Stilwell had been instrumental and getting to baptism. The photo of Elder Stilwell and he Tommy standing by the picture that has been posted was the photo that I took of them. I only spoke to Tommy briefly, but I talked to him several times online Facebook messenger. He was always polite courteous as any missionary always is for the church. I never had the honor of having him in my home from a meal like I do are local missionaries assigned here. Elder Kesler I just transferred from our ward over to North Dakota. I had had Elder Kessler in my home many times for meals. I just wanted to express my sympathies to both families for your loss. They are both in gods hands now and they are a higher calling. thank you for sharing them with us the time that we had them, we will never forget. God bless.

Dear Gardner Family, My heart aches for you all. My son is currently serving in Bolivia and I just cried when I heard the news of your son. I know nothing I say will make everything better, so please know there are many mothers and families who mourn with you. You will be in my continued prayers. You have so many that love and pray for you. Sincerely, Kristina Edwards

I didn't have the fortune of knowing Tommy but I did have the opportunity to hear his mother proudly talk about the exceptional, charismatic, fun, and giving young man that he was, and how he lightened up and made a difference in the life of everyone who knew him. My heart goes out to Kim and her family for such an irreparable loss. From your team in Costa Rica, our deepest condolences.

Our son is currently serving in the North Dakota Bismark Mission. He shared with us that he met Elder Gardner while they served in the Pineridge Zone. He shared with us that he quickly grew to love appreciate how warm and fun loving Elder Gardner was. Being a new missionary at the time, he was grateful for the friendship and example Elder Gardner was to him. Our thoughts and prayers have consistenly been focused on your family, as well as the Kesler family and the missionaries who are still mourning the loss of these two faithful Elders! We will continue to pray for you. Camille Gifford
