

Ronald Lloyd Nate

July 28, 1936 ~ April 27, 2025

Kelly and I met while working at the Big O Tire store in Provo. Ron was our boss. He never felt like a boss to us. He was a jokester and always teasing others. He treated us fairly and became like a father figure to us. He would tease me about Kelly and giggle as he walked away. I wish I could give him one more big hug and tell him thank you for all the advice, talks and fun times. He will be missed.

What do you think of this? It was such an honor to care for Ronald and his beautiful wife, Carrie. I'll never forget the kindness and love they shared. I feel lucky to have known them both.

When I was a student at BYU, perhaps as many as 50 years ago, I had car trouble near the BigO tire store in Provo. I was stranded and remember walking into the shop and being greeted by a jovial man who immediately offered assistance and, after helping me, would not accept payment. I'm sure at the time I had very little to give him but a smile. His kindness and obvious good nature left such an impression on me that over 30 years later, after my wife and I moved into his ward, I was talking with Ron when I recognized that same jovial, good-natured kindness and remembered him. His example of kindness to me and to his sweet wife Carrie will always be treasured memories!

We have a lot of great memories with Ron and Cari. We enjoyed being neighbors in Highland when we lived across the street. Ronnie was always up for a good time. We have great memories of a Viking cruise from Budapest to Germany. We also had great times eating out and going to the Hale Theater together. Steve and Ron were home teaching companions and the Bishops daughter couldn't get over Ronnie's big blue eyes. We will always remember our good times together.
