JONATHAN STEVENS: Dustin, Janelle and I are deeply sorry for the loss of your father. I hope your memories of him will bring you comfort and peace. Our thoughts are with you during this difficult time. SUSAN NEFF: Dear Dustin, sending you much love wishes of comfort as your family goes through this difficult time. Thank you for sharing his obituary so we could learn about what a wonderful person he was. You are very lucky to have had someone so special in your life. CELINE FAUPULA: Dustin, I'm so sorry to hear about the loss of your father. I can't imagine what you're going through right now, but please know that my thoughts are with you and your family at this time. If there’s anything you need or if I can support you in any way, please don't hesitate to reach out. SARITHA KALVA: Dustin, your father was an extraordinary man who lived life to the fullest and left a lasting impact on all who knew him. His commitment to the community was evident in his monthly efforts to feed the homeless, a testament to his compassion and spirit. An avid golfer, runner, pickelball player, his determination and zest for life were truly inspiring. Our deepest condolences to you and your family during this difficult time. May you all find the courage to support each other and your Mom as you celebrate his legacy. SONIA CHEN: Dear Dustin, Kall and I are very sorry for you lost such an amazing father, a true model in your family. I am sure he was very proud of you as being one of his sons, and I am sure the twins will miss their dear grandpa. It is never easy to loss someone so close on the Christmas day; but it will also make the day that much more memorable to celebrate your late father!

My condolences to Ron's family. I didn't see his obituary until this afternoon (Sat.) or I would have come to the viewing. I knew Ron some 55 years ago when he was an Explorer advisor in the Valley View 8th ward where I was about 16 years old. So these details may be a bit hazy, but this experience changed my life. We took a two or three day float trip down the San Juan River through the Goosenecks.. We camped one day at the mouth of Grand Gulch and hiked up a ways. It was just Ron and I and another adult leader. Not too far in we came across some Native American potshards in a canyon wall alcove. Ron knew just where to look. This was the first time I had seen anything like this and I'll never forget how sensitive and respectful Ron was about the place. You didn't touch anything and you didn't take any souvenirs! I felt like l was on sacred ground. Since that time, I have hiked and explored in every county in Utah and love to learn about the history of the peoples that have been here before. My kids and grandkids share my passion. We've seen rock art and artifacts in more locations than I can count. Every time we do, I'm reminded of that special experience with Ron Ollis. .

Ron & Brook were my neighbors growing up. I remember there always being a fun & friendly rivalry between Ron and my father, Thale. The two of them were both very competiive at golf and tennis and were always making fun jabs at each other when one of them were to beat the other. My parents really loved Ron and his great enthusiasm for life. My husband and I appreciated Ron taking our wedding photos on the SLC Temple grounds in 1980. I then moved away from Utah and returned again in 2010. It's been years since I have had this fine family as a neighbor. When I visited my parents, I often chatted with them in their yard and at church. Ten days before Ron's passing, I stopped by the Ollis home to visit with a treat. Ron was sitting in the kitchen and he greeted me with a warm smile and sparkle in his eyes. I believe he even told a joke! I am grateful I stopped by. I have always loved the Ollis's and will continue to stay in touch with Brook. She is a dear, faithful woman.

I met Ron at a picnic following a West High class reunion. He was such a kind and friendly person that I remember thinking he was perfect for Brooke. Somehow I ended up with a picture of both of them, looking so happy. I attached that picture to my refrigerator. I wanted to see those wonderful faces every day. When Steve died suddenly, it gave me tremendous solace to know that happy friends still existed, just by looking at that photo. You touched lives in such a positive way. And isn't that the best thing anyone can say about a friend?
