

Ronald Wayne Crouch

January 27, 1950 ~ November 15, 2023

Sending our deepest condolences to your family.

- Jim and Catht Trussell

A great man who made a positive difference in my life. Met in business and became good friends. Loved just sitting and talking with Ron on our business or bird hunting trips in South Dakota. Will miss Ron and wish the best to E and all his children and grandchildren.

- Chris Ross

I met Ron on a pheasant hunt in South Dakota organized by Chris Ross and Ron in 2008, and was immediately impressed by his warmth and sense of humor. I throughly enjoyed his company in the lodge and in the field over the following years until his cancer curtailed his trips to the Horseshoe K Ranch. A true gentleman, he was and will be missed.

- Matt McGlone

I am so sorry for your Dad's passing Amy. Truly, if he was anything like you, he was a great man. You were so much fun to work with at Ogden Regional hospital. I send my thoughts and prayers to you and your family.

- Nancy Messerly

Sincere sympathy to the family. I worked with Amy and Justin and followed his fight with cancer for years. He gave it a hell of a go! May God bless you all as you travel on through life without this great man. Love, R

- Roma Smith

With Ron even when things were tough at work or in his life. He always was positive, I enjoyed working with Ron. Was proud to call him my friend. R

- Randy Anderson

So sorry for the loss of Ron. He was an amazing man. Remember all the wonderful times you all had together.

- Teri Toelcke

Heidi,Justin and family our sincere condolences on the loss of Justin’s Dad■. And to the whole family left behind. I have loved watching and listening to stories of the Crouch Clan over the years! Meet in the Man Cave often and enjoy his spirit there!! Much love to you all

- Wanda &Randy Smith

Tho I had only known Ron for 15 years, meeting was an experience that was memorable A true gentleman.

- Bianca moran

A great friend for a long time.. He epitomized the word “ character”. A true gentleman. The world needs more Rons.So my friend, a piece of you stays with me and a piece of me goes with you. So goes the circle of life. Rest in peace my friend

- Hank Regulski

I was sad to hear of the passing of Ron. He was always so kind to me and willing to help me out after the death of my first husband. I will always cherish his kind heart!

- Jan Roll

Ron always had a smile on his face, especially if he had a fish on ,we will miss you.■ Love you,❤■ Ron and “E” we cherish all the days we got to spend in Alaska with you.■■■ our deepest sympathies from the entire staff at Eagle Charters, May you rest in eternal peace Ron Joe kulavik Michael and Jason Leboki

- Michael Leboki

Amy, I have been so inspired by your Dad’s courage and positive attitude throughout his fight with cancer. And the stories of all the things he has done, from fishing trips for halibut and salmon, to building the man cave, have been so fun to hear. Sending love and positive thoughts your way. You are the best, and I know because of your love and admiration for your dad that he is too. Hang in there.

40 years ago Ron and I worked together at Staker Paving. He quickly became my trusted friend. I will miss his sense of humor, his intellect, his compassion and most of all his friendship. Elizabeth, we are so very sorry.

- Scott and Lynne Barrett

We were sorry to hear the passing of Ron. I have known Ron for 60 years and he has been a great friend. We worked at U dot together and have remain friends all these years. Although we live in Washington state we have stayed in touch all these years, and it was always so much fun to share time with Ron and Elizabeth at their home in Croydon. We share your loss Elizabeth. Our prayers will be with you and your family.

- Mitch and Joan Larsson

Liz: Rosemary & I send our deepest condolences to you. Ron was such a joy to talk to. Ron shared his life experiences with his great smile, twinkle in his eyes and his smooth, calm demeanor. All his stories were interesting and almost always had some “moral to the story”. He was an old-fashion cowboy. We’re glad we could spend part of our lives with him.

- Bud & Rosemary Brown

Sending my deepest condolences and love to Ron’s kids and Elizabeth. Ron was one of the kindest and most generous people I have ever known. He and his family took me in as part of their own when I was in high school. He always made me feel included and loved. I will forever be grateful for the monumental way Ron influenced me as a person and helped put me on a great life path. He got me my first real job working for Elizabeth, and he lined me up with my husband of 24 years! Ron was truly the best of the best, and I love him and his family more than I could ever convey.

- Amy Burningham

Amy, Justin and family, We are deeply sorry for your loss. I loved all the stories Amy shared with me. Those memories will give you some comfort and eventually make you laugh. Sending love to all if you at this very difficult time.

- Teresaand Dan Zimmerman

I won't forget the conversations during morning coffee at our family reunion at Bear Lake. I could tell Ron was a generous and genuine person simply from these few conversations

- Patrick and Alysha Paranto

Elizabeth .... I am sorry you lost the love of your life.

- Stephan Stringham

It was deeply saddening to learn of Ron's passing. Ron and I served together at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, TX, along with our good friend Don B. from California. The three of us became very good friends during our time together. All three of us departed the same day, we shook hands and promised that we would somehow keep in touch. Of course, this was 1969—long before cell phones, email, or the internet—and somehow life carried us in different directions. For nearly the past 15 years, I occasionally searched the internet trying to find Ron and

Don, always hoping that somehow I would reconnect with the two friends I had known so many years ago. Sadly, I have only now discovered that Ron passed away in 202. I am truly sorry that I never had the opportunity to reconnect with him. But want his family to know that Ron was not forgotten. I remember him, I remember our friendship, and I will always be grateful for the time the three of us shared. My sincere condolences to Ron's wife and his entire family. May they find comfort in knowing that, even after all these years, Ron is remembered with great fondness by a friend who served alongside him. It was an honor to know you and to call him my friend. Rest in peace my friend. Rest in peace. Feel free to contact me: Email - harleydecades@yahoo.com - Cell 570 592 2887
