I’m so sorry for your loss. Ronni was taken way to soon. Her personality and laughter brought joy to any room. She will missed by many but not forgotten.

I had the privilege of being a chaperone on the high school trip to New York that Ronnie and my daughter kaitlyn went on. It was so much fun exploring the city with these fun loving girls and their friends. The kids could go anywhere they wanted as long as they had their adult with them. I just tagged along having fun with them. Ronnie turned to me asked me what I wanted to see and do. I have always been touched by her thoughtful question. She brought a special sparkle to everything she did. I'm sure she is bringing love and laughter to heaven.
