

Rux McCray Plott

April 17, 1930 ~ May 10, 2023

I'm so sorry, it is so hard to lose a parent. Thinking of you

- Tish

Ruth: We are truly sorry for your loss. It was great that we got to know both of you during our time in Padre Lakes and appreciate your generosity in opening up your residence there when we needed it. Rux was fun to talk with and always had funny, positive things to say. I will also miss seeing you, my dear "Cauliflower"! :)

A true Renaissance man, Rux excelled at all his undertakings. He was an accomplished artist, a skilled teacher of many and varied disciplines, a spiritual giant, a model father and husband. I was in awe of Rux whenever in his presence. My association with him made me a better man. Though never formally registered in any of his classes, I was a constant student of the man Rux Plott.

So sorry to hear of his passing. He is such a great friend, and we will miss him tremendously. He touched so many lives. With much love and best wishes, George

- George Sturt

Dear Ruth. We were sad to learn of Rux' passing. He was a wonderful man, a loving and giving friend. It was an honor to have known him. You and your family are in our hearts and prayers. Love, Dottie and Mike
