You all are in my prayers during this time. Stay strong, pray hard. The Lord loves you and He alone is faithful.

- Kent Tagge

Dear Lee Ann and family, you are in my prayers at this time. He has gotten the best healing of all from God and is now out of pain. I pray for the peace which passes all understanding to be with you and your family. Your cousin Leslie.

- Leslie Dorius-Jones

My dear cousin LeeAnn and all of your family, I am so sorry about your lost loss. I think of everyone who has gone before at this time of year. We lost my mom's dad December 22, 1973. That was a very different Christmas. I am so grateful for the times we had as kids together. I appreciate the beautiful sunset posted. It reminds me of being on my way home from Philadelphia the second time. The only difference was puffy clouds. I didn't have a digital camera at the time and it's easy to forget the color. It was also the longest sunset I ever experienced because we were going from East to West. I love the view of the world from the sky. I love you very much, even though we haven't seen each other for such a long time. My memories are precious as I know yours are. In fact, Precious Memories is a favorite hymn. Whispering Hope gave me so much comfort. I'm glad How Great Thou Art has been in our own hymn book for a long time now.

- Christie Butterfield Martin

Dear Lee Ann, Sean Christopher, and Amanda, We express our deepest condolences on this tragic loss of your exceptional husband and dad. He is gone far too soon and leaves a whole in your hearts that nothing else can fill. He accomplished so much in his life. He will be sorely missed but his gifts to all of us who knew and loved him will live forever in our hearts and souls. Much love and prayers, Niwako & Scott

- Niwako & Scott

Our thoughts and prayers are worth you and your family. Chris fought a his fight and I'm sure he is in a good place now with long lost friends and families. He was a good friend and we will miss him.

- Mark & Peggy Swint

So sorry to have missed the service; I am wondering if there will be a link to see it later? I wish I could be there in person to give LeeAnn and Amanda and all the family a hug. Chris worked so hard to beat the cancer, and you were all a part of that struggle. He had so much courage and strength. Hoping that good energy remains for you all during this holiday season and onward. Lots of love, Jean
