Clifton and Nathaniel, My heart is sad with the loss of this beautiful person. I got to know her more on facebook than I did when I was in Utah. I loved the humor she posted and her beautiful pictures. I often "shared" her posts so others could enjoy them as well. I pray God will give you comfort and peace , as well as many times of reflection of her wonderful life. Will be praying for you tomorrow, Blessings, Patty Vlachos

Dear Cliff and Nathaniel: I am sorry to hear of Sandra's passing, but believe her safe at home with her Lord Jesus. I appreciate the extensive obituary for I now know far more fully about her rich and full life, her positive and loving impact on the many people whose lives she touched. You both are in my prayers. I'm really sorry to see her go. She made my heart glad while I was in Shiloh and on Facebook. I loved her posts. The photos were inspiring and her wit was always welcome. I'll miss her but I know that I'll see her again. I know that she's heard the words "Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Love and forever missed, Mom and Pop Branch.

Clifton and Nathaniel, I was saddened to hear of Sandra's passing and my heart goes out to you both. She was always a joy to be around, spreading her love of music, photography, and people. I will also always remember Sandra bringing her own flavor of worship as she played her banjo as a part of the worship team at Mountain Springs. My thoughts and prayers are with you both during this time. Mike Moran

What a joy to have been a small part of Sandra's journey in this realm we call Earth. Thank you for sharing a more detailed version of her life. I always felt like there was a deep treasure and knowledge within her that would occassionally eke out. She brought me and my entire family joy. I rejoice that she can now sit in God's presence without the veil. May you and Nate continue to feel her unconditional love. And may her one liners break through once in awhile and bring a smile to your face and even a chuckle.
