Sarah Lynn Mason

April 23, 1959 ~ January 22, 2024

Beautiful Sarah, inside and out. I am so saddened to hear of your passing. Sending healing Aloha to your family. Rest in Love, Sarah.

Sarah Mason in many ways was a second mom to me. Her home was a haven filled with fun, the gospel, and good food. What I remember most about Sarah were two things: She was always smiling and made incredible bean dip! Second, Sarah always took time to ask how I was doing, and, of course, she grew the most miraculous sunflowers. I love her and her family.

Sarah will be missed by me very much. There is a saying in the family as long as the person lost is in your thoughts they are alway with you. She will always be with me. She has a great family to keep her memory and big heart and kindness going.

I was sorry to hear of Sarah’s passing. She was my children’s after school day care provider and they truly loved her. She always had a smile on her face and she truly loved all her kids. I also knew her as Brook’s mom and she was a friend to all. May she rest in peace.

Sarah was an amazingly loving and giving woman. She gave from the depth of her heart to all those around her. She will be missed and though physically gone she will never be forgotten. My prayers go out to John and all of her family and friends.

I have so many memories of my friend Sarah. We were leaders at Girls Camp together, she was a customer of mine & I absolutely love her and her infectious smile. Sarah blessed many lives, mine included. I have shed tears but I know she has simply relocated & we will meet again. Love & hugs to the Mason family.
