

Scott L. Price

January 14, 1948 ~ December 16, 2024

---

I am so sorry to see that Scott passed. I considered him a sweet friend and always enjoyed walking out to his Jeep with him to give Chances a treat. He fought a valiant fight with his health issues. He often spoke of his family, his pets (especially Chances) and the things he enjoyed when he was younger. He was always very sweet and I will always remember him.
