

Sean Gary Hancock

June 11, 1984 ~ April 11, 2026

We’re so sorry that Sean is gone. It’s unfair and awful. He deserved a long life. You guys are in our thoughts, and if you need anything we’re here. I hope we can see you soon. Until then, sending love and hugs.

- Caitlin Dwyer and Andrew Powers

I am so sorry you have had another loss in your family. My deepest sympathies are with your family at this time. My prayers are with you.

- Darlene Jamison and family

I first met this ‘MAN’ about six years ago! What a joyous ride has been to say the least!!!!!! A man who did not have a hate full bone in his joyful personality. His sweet daughter he cherrished with all his devoted heart. Our long talks about life and enduring to the very very end as he surly accomplished!!!!!!!! The bear hugs I so deeply miss as well as the laughter he so deeply shared with us all. May you be comforted in your grief and gods blessings flood his dearest loved ones■■■■ Tom Lacey, Your brother gave it his all in everything he did. So strong and what an amazing individual. My heart goes out to you and the family.

- Karen Richardson

Dear family, I cannot begin to feel your pain and loss of such a bright human! There are no w l rds to comfort you and only beautiful memories to hold on to. May God wrap you in His arms with Grace and Peace. I love you all!
