

Shawna Erin Wright

November 7, 1958 ~ July 4, 2021

Sweet Shawna, We are sorry. We are sorry the world failed you, like so many before you (my brother 2019) and sadly after you who, even though you came from a loving family, had a brilliant mind - society failed you. My heart both aches and feels peace for you. We will do better, we have too. Rest well dear lady, may peace finally be yours.

- Laura

My condolences with such a sad, sad situation. Yes mentally I'll persons are not given the care they need. I dont have the answers, but know there r many that r very good people and sadly are ignored. My prayers to u all and especially this lovely lady

- Jewelene Child

I am so sorry to read of your loss. The obituary was quite powerful. I will remember what you have written, and I will send a donation to the Road Home in Shawna's name. Sincerely, Christy Call

- Christy

Im so sorry for your loss! I have a son with bipolar and 2 handicap sons. Their is help for my handicapped sons but no help for my son with mental illness. I hope and pray things will change.

- Sherrie Callister