

Sigrid Helene Cieslak Rudolph

February 26, 1935 ~ December 18, 2025

Brent and I are blessed and grateful to have known Sigrid for many years. She was unfailingly kind and cheerful. You always left cheered after any encounter with her. She was a beautiful example of service and her testimony of the gospel and her love of the Savior shone through all her doings. We love you, Sigrid❤■

Sigrid is leaving a large space that few people could cover with Charity as she had all her life. She was most caring and thoughtful person any could have met. She loved her families and friends serving and helping however she could. She loved the Lord Jesus Christ and followed His teachings, which made her a great example to us all. She loved all wholesome music, nature and animals large and small. She was an excellent councilor for good a great supporter of family and individual progress. She loved peace and practiced it. She was a lovely daughter of Our Heavenly Father. She is a great sister, mother and grandmother - a lovely Oma.

I’m so sorry for the loss of your mother. She was such a special person, and I know she’ll be remembered with deep affection by everyone who had the privilege of knowing her. As my aunt, she held a very special place in my heart, and I always felt blessed to have been loved by her the way I was. When I was at school in Utah, she welcomed me into her home and treated me like a family —something I will never forget. Her kindness and warm spirit will stay with me always. Sigrid was also a very important person to both my parents, Dieter and Wilma Rudolph. She was also incredibly special to my mother, a connection that was unique. She also understood my father in a way very few people ever did— maybe because he was a Rudolph. I always admired that she just got that part of him. Those connections always meant so much to our family, and they say so much about the kind of person she was. I will miss her greatly, and I hope you find comfort in the memories, the love she gave so freely, and the strength you have as a family. Sending you all my love and support during this difficult time.

I met Chris, her daughter, way back when she was in nursing school and I was a fairly new nurse at University of Utah Hospital. Chris shared with me multiple moments spent with her family and Mom. She always talked about her Mom with love and tenderness. I perceived her Mom was a very loving person that enriched Chris and her family's lives with her presence. My condolences goes to Chris, son and whole family for this very challenging times of their lives. And that love & peace reside in their hearts. Sincerely, Laila

I am so sorry for your loss! Sigrid truly was and is an elect lady as was mentioned at the funeral service. I am so grateful to her and those of you who joined her in serving my family these last 10 years! I will play some Mensch ärgere dich nicht in her honor. I am glad our paths crossed about 10 years ago. She is one of my heroines! Thank you for the beautiful funeral service, I am thankful for the technology that allowed me to watch it.

I have a few cherished memories of Sigrid, which I would like to share with you. Having left my family in Germany to marry Harold, she became an important part of my new family. I had left an uncle Manfred and aunt Sigrid behind, and she filled that void by accepting and loving me from the start. There was never a doubt in my mind that she loved me and approved of me - and, oh, how I needed that in those early years. She was so generous - cutting Harold's hair when he could not afford it, inviting us to her New Years open house, showing genuine interest in our lives and that of our children, giving beautiful gifts whenever we had a new baby, and remembering us at Christmas each year with a beautiful card. When my parents came over for visits, she befriended them and they corresponded for many years. I am so happy to imagine them being together on the other side, catching up. Each one of our children loved Sigrid, because she first loved them and showed interest in them and their lives. What a great example to follow !!! We loved her food - we could always count on her bringing the best cakes to baby blessings and get togethers. We fought over the leftovers haha . She left a legacy of love and grace and we are better people for having known her. We feel the same kindness and friendship from and for all of you, her family, and hope we will continue to keep in touch. The funeral was lovely and very touching, as each daughter shared her special relationship with her mom. I can see parts of her in each one of you. May you feel her love and presence around you now and always. You are very special !! With love, Carmen
