I'm very sad to hear about Steven's passing 🙏🏻 My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. May God grant you all peace as you go through the process of mourning 🙏🏻

- Colleen Stevenson

I am so sorry to hear about Steven. We know he's in a wonderful place waiting happily for his eternal companion and family when the time is right. I remember Steve and Jeff from ENMS. I was ahead of him a few years - Class of '66. The only time I saw him after that was at our 2002 reunion. Once I learned he had moved to Utah I tried contacting him by email a few times but received no response, so I let it go. Now I see that time really is finite and we can't afford to let such opportunities pass us by. I wonder if we passed each other in the South Jordan Temple on occasion? That was my wife's Temple. She's from West Jordan. Iva, I know the Lord is looking out for you and your family. Death is just a new beginning - not an end - merely a temporary separation. Know that you are loved.

My deepest condolences during this time of sorrow. During this trying time, I hope that you find strength in those that surround you.

Ivy, I loved getting to know Frank through his obituary. Bless your aching heart to receive little pieces of gratitude as you journey forward. What an amazing man you are sealed to for time and all eternity. "Irrespective of age, we mourn for those loved and lost. Mourning is one of the deepest expressions of pure love. It is a natural response in complete accord with divine commandment: 'Thou shalt live today in love, insomuch that thou shalt weep for the loss of them that die. ' (Doctrine and Covenants 42:45.) It must have left such a huge space in your heart. I love how much you both did in your life. I hope peace and healing come to you as you go on from day to day. Greg and Janet Reed
