I will forever remember the spirit of friendship, happiness and goodness he had I look forward to seeing him when his physical matches his spiritual. His space on earth will never be taken by another, he will truly be missed.

Steve, what a giant of a man you are. You will be remembered as a friend to all. You had physical limitations, but that did not stop you from doing the things you loved to do. You will hold a special place in my heart because of your kindness, your spiritual strength, and the love you showed to all. You will be missed. I love you, Steve.
