

Summer Anne Webb

June 28, 2008 ~ August 18, 2023

What a wonderful young lady! Full of love, smiles, beliefs, acceptance and fun! She taught me so much about smiling even bigger when things get tough! I only knew her for 2 years but that was enough to be in awe of her and to laugh and learn to live pink and Melanie Martinez! She was a one in a million and I can say, “I knew her!” Love to the family!

Sending love, healing and comfort to all! So sorry for this heart-wrenching loss. May you find solace in the cherished and sweet memories. “The reality is that you will grieve forever. You will not ‘get over’ the loss of a loved one; you’ll learn to live with it. You will heal and you will rebuild yourself around the loss you have suffered. You will be whole again but you will never be the same. Nor should you be the same nor would you want to.” Elisabeth Kubler~Ross May God’s Grace Be With You!

I was so sad to hear of the passing of this beautiful girl... Summer! I do remember her cheerfulness and her willingness to try. She created a very wonderful aura in my classroom! I have thought of how she worked so hard around the physical disability that held her back from her potential. She did not let anything get her down though! There was always that wonderful smile! I hope that the family is comforted in knowing that this sweet girl was a blessing to many! I pray that the Lord will bless her wonderful family with peace and comfort in knowing that Summer is in a wonderful place in heaven and that the angels are watching over her until we meet her again. God bless and much love to you all... with sweet, but sad, condolences!

I was in elementary school with Bread and Summer, and I’ve been wondering how they’ve been doing. It breaks my heart to hear Summer has passed as the twins were some of my closest friends in elementary up until I lost contact during the pandemic. I got a small update on Summer during 8th grade when I was getting voice lessons from a neighbor of theirs and was overjoyed to hear that she was doing well from her. I’m so sorry for your family’s loss, Summer was one of the sweetest people I ever had the pleasure of knowing, and I’m so sorry for sending such a late condolence.
