sandie and Bonnie there are no words for loss. We loved cody so much he brought excitement, service wherever he went. We loved him like a brother and son. He helped us so much and for that we are truly grateful for you teaching him all about this in this life. He was such a joy to all who knew him and we feel blessed to know him. We love you guys! I know grandpa is teaching him the rope there in heaven! You will have a very special guardian angel w you!

Gosh...Cody is such an amazing person. He's a friend you can count on, one who supported a lot of people in many ways. He is such a happy go lucky guy and always has jokes to make even the darkest days bright. Cody is going to be dearly missed from this world, and by all of the people he left an impact on. Fly high bro, till we all meet again.

Sandie...my heart goes out to you....i got to know Cody and became very close to him over the past years and loved him like he was one of my very own....he always managed to put a smile on my face when times were tough and was so good at making everyone laugh. There were so many things we loved about Cody and i for one cant wait to see him again in heaven one day.
