Hi dad, I know your up there four wheeling, lifting weights with you healthy and happy body but you better be up there celebrating your reunion with your dad! Fly high and raise hell dad!

I remember how he always handles a tough situation at work with extreme professionalism and then when it was over he could relax the mood and make you laugh. He was always great to work with and willing to help out. He will be missed by many who lived him. My thoughts and prayers go out to Christ and the kids.

To the entire Family, I have few words, except my condolences to your Family. Sometimes loss and grief are messy, remember all the good times, memories are what helps us recover. I worked with Heather, beautiful soul, Iam so very sorry, My prayer is healing and hope maybe this helps, " Its okay to not be okay sometimes " Matt West Love to all, Cindy Otness

I’m so sorry for your loss Chrise - good people are few and far between, and that’s one quality you both share. It was a wonderful to have met him. ~ Steph

Tad- you were the best trainer VECC had to offer. Thankfully the bulk of my career included you showing me how the job is done. You and Chrisy helped me when I was beginning to separate from my husband by watching my young daughter a few times. You treated Emerie like she was your own blood when she was there. Tad always had such pride when he talked about his wife and his kids. He could be having the worst day but it would turn right around when he would talk about the plans they had as a family. Thankfully I was able to help and watch their little dog while they got to go on these great adventures. I am so sorry for the loss Vawdrey family. They do not make men like Tad anymore but as an outlier to your family it was an honor to have known him.
