Taylor Jay Wilcox

October 14, 1992 ~ July 28, 2022

Taylor was a great friend and person! He always included others and instantly you would want to be around him. He was always so happy and carefree and it was infectious. I am so grateful I got to be his friend. He will be missed!

I'm so sorry for your loss Lindsi, Jared, Ethan and family. I can remember when he was just a baby until he was older and was always so full of life. There are no words of comfort, but so much love sent your way. May all your memories provide comfort when grief is heavy.

As a French teenager I had the chance to spent 2 summers in Utah with Seth Chilvers' family. I remember vividly days spent with Taylor and Seth playing video games and just having so much fun. Taylor was such a sweetheart and did everything to make me feel like a part of their group, he was so open minded and brave for a teenager at that time. I can still hear his wonderful laugh and will cherish those moments spent together. Rest in peace Taylor you were one of kind.

Taylor it was a pleasure getting to know you and see your huge bright personality shining. We will all miss you and think of you often. Fly high my friend, you're now free of your earthly struggles and pain. To Taylors family and friends, I send all of my love and prayers your way. May you all find the strength to get through this, remember and cherish the best memories and provide each other the support and love to keep Taylor's memory and spirit shining as big and bright as he did on earth. "When we lose someone we love we must learn not to live without them, but to live with the love they left behind."

- Kristi

I am so sorry about your loss. He was my friend in school. He was an amazing person and will be missed. I will pray for your family and hope that you feel comfort at this time.

First I'm so sorry for your loss, Taylor was so unique. I wish I would have let Taylor know this, so I'm going to tell you. You meet so many people in life and as time goes you forget most, Taylor will always be one of my favorites and not ever forgotten. He was so inappropriately funny it broke the ice and the awkwardness was instantly gone. He made me laugh even when I was angry- so I hope you tell an inappropriate joke or make a funny comment in an awkward time, for him. My prayers are with you.

- Maryann Tassie

Our deepest condolences! I'm sending love and strength to you during this difficult time. We love you!

- Melissa Berglind

Lyndsi, Pam and family Our father in heaven knows your name and your sorrows. May the sweet memories of of this cherished son, sustain you through the darkness. Aunt Helene (Louise's sister)

- Helene Formisano Byington

We cannot imagine the pain and heartache you're feeling. We are praying for your peace and comfort.

Taylor was an amazing guy and of the best cousins you could ever have. He was definitely one of my favorites without question. When we were younger and i would come up to visit the family. He would always want to hangout with all of us as in his cousins and do some kind of fun activity. He would always make sure that you would feel included when you were hanging out with him or around him in anyway. He was one of my role models growing up because of how awesome he was and nice he was with everything especially when it came to family. Another thing i absolutely loved about him is that he was a spitting image to paul walker whom is one of my all time favorite actors. Sadly in recent years we grew apart a bit due to difficulty of schedules and life in general so we weren't able to hangout but does not take away the fact that i love this guy and always will. Rest in peace taylor. Until we meet again. I love you man.
