We love and miss you Grandma. we'll give your Love to Lou.

- Nicholas Lara

Even though I was only in Teresa's life four short years I feel we had a special connection. I think everyone that met her felt that way! We liked to talk about the things that give extra zest to life and in turn the sorrow that makes one appreciate every moment. Teresa's sorrows never seemed to overshadow her zest for life or dampen her rock solid faith. As much as I will miss our chats she is now pain free and, I believe, dancing with all of the angels. Cheers Ami!

Rest in peace Tia. You were a strong and courageous woman who overcame so much. You are loved and will be dearly missed. So glad you were able to reconnect with dad and share so many tears of joy I wish I could have been to see you too.. Love; Eddie
