

Terrile Tanner Black

January 8, 1969 ~ September 1, 2025

My deepest condolences to you and your family! It's so overwhelming to navigate such a loss at times. May your memories surround you with love and provide comfort and strength to carry you through this difficult time.

Terrile was a breath of fresh air. She was kind, loving, and had more integrity in her little finger than I did in my body. Sending love to her family.

Andy, I'm so sorry for your loss. I pray God brings you and your family peace and healing as you celebrate Terrile's life.
