Our family had the honor of being the Reeder's neighbors for years. No one could give you the shirt off his back like Tom. He was always helping! We love telling Tom stories because honestly, this guy was crazy fun! We love all the Reeder kids and Wendy- what a wonderful caregiver you've been all these years. You are an amazing woman and we pray for God's sustaining influence and peace to be with you. Our life is richer because Tom and you all were a part of it!

Toni, my heart aches for you and your family. Many blessings to your mom as well. May your many fond memories turn tears to laughter and help ease your broken hearts. I'm so truly sorry for your great loss. I know how much you love your mom and dad and to lose your dad just doesn't seem real right now. "Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal" Cherish and keep sharing the great family memories you all have, I'm sure your dad would love that. Sending Hugs, Prayers and much love to you all. Your friend, Sylvia

Dearest Wendy and Family, I am so sorry for your loss. I loved Tom and have watched him valiantly deal with his health problems. I have seen his loving children help him and I know that you Wendy have been the glue. I honor and admire you and have always looked to you as an example. I have thought much about you and Tom over the past days . I feel blessed to be your cousin and friend. Your family is loved and cared about. I missed seeing you this summer. I pray everyday that we will be safe and be able to do the things that will bring us closer to God. Love you ! Mike and Bonnie Hardy

Hello Wendy and Reeder family. Marilyn (Hatch) Gutierrez brought Tom's obituary to my attention after publication in the Des News. I didn't see it in the Tribune which is the paper I read. I'm so sorry for your loss. My most prominent remembrance of Tom was that he always had the smile on his face like that pictured in the photo with this form. He was always friendly and seemed to live life as an eternal optimist. Losing a loved one is so hard, but I hope you know that many friends and former school mates are praying for you all at this time. As ever, Linda
