Thomas Young was my mission president in Canada for nearly two years. His teachings, love and example changed me. Sincerest condolences to Dwan and the family.

- Tim Barron

Dear Dwan, “Uncle Yesco” as Dee always called Tom, was one of his favorite people. I hope they reconnect in heaven over many memories! I’m sure Dee has already searched out and met the Young ancestors he got to know by researching them. I will never forget our fun times in the big, white van hauling Yesco props, listening to beautiful movie soundtracks and hearing about your time in Canada and as primary president. I think of you fondly and admire the wonderful life you and Tom created. Lots of love, Marty Halverson Evans. (I remarried three years ago! It’s been a great new adventure!)

- Marty Halverson Evans

Dear Dwan and family, I loved the very special obituary that was so fitting for such an extraordinary man. Just as the obituary stood out as superior to others, you know that Tom as a spirit child of our Father in Heaven was noted as one of his great and noble ones who would come to earth at the right time and be surrounded by a very special family to further Heavenly Father's work wherever he went just like He knew he would. You can be assured he is having a very special welcome and will be ready to welcome each one of you one by one when your work is finished too.

- Mary Jean Waddell

I admire and respect Mr. Young as a business colleague, mentor, and friend. He treated me and my employees with such kindness and respect. One memory that stands out was a time where an employee had bumped into a stack of boxes knocking down papers and photos. We met him on-site to assess the situation with our employee. After the employee explained what had happened, Mr. Young could not have been any kinder, he replied with the sincerest words of understanding letting the young man know it was okay and that accidents happen. Putting us all at ease. Mr. Young reminds me so much of my own father with his words of guidance and calming presence. I know my father, Ernest E. Wolfert, welcomed him with open arms, and they are walking with each other telling stories and continuing to do the Lords work. He will be greatly missed but I look forward to seeing him again.

- Alex Wolfert, Ace Cleaning, LLC

I truly learned to appreciate Tom when he agreed to hire me as a Legal Assistant for Neil Smith many many years ago. It was always a joy to be around Tom; always smiling, always welcoming, and always kind. To him, I was known as "Normi." Every morning I would see him in the office, he would say, "Good morning Normi!" Tom has always been an inspiration to me and I personally witnessed his loyalty to everyone in every way. My condolences to all of the Young family. Having Tom for all of these years has been a blessing, not only to his family, but also to us from the YESCO family. He will be greatly missed. Dwan, Mike, Paul, Jeff, Christine and Suzanne, love and hugs to all of you! Tom's legacy will carry on.

With a sad heart. I wish to express my love and respect to the the Young family. For the loss of a wonderful example of a true follower of Jesus Christ. He had a gift to see value in people, that they couldn't see in themselves. He will be missed, but not forgotten.

- (Elder) Darryn L King

For many hours I interviewed Tom in his office and at his home. He also led me on tours of personal (including handcarts) and YESCO facilities. I was privileged to write and publish his biography. He was such a kind and unselfish man, and also a great business man. I also interviewed, wrote and published his wife Dwan's biography. I adored their entire family and am grateful for my association. My condolence to his family, and honor you all for being such a wonderful part of his life.

As a missionary in the Canada Calgary Mission, President Young made me feel important, loved, and he taught me so many great things about life. From his piloting experiences, and stories he taught me to “Stay On Course. You can miss your destination even if you are off course by one degree.” I admire the unity that he and Sister Young showed us young missionaries, and their devotion to the Savior. He is a great man, and will continue his great service to others through eternity. My condolences to Sister Young and their family.

- Chris Smith

We love you and honor your dear father Tom, and send to each of you our gratitude for the many cherished memories we share together - living in the Monument Park 15th Ward. Thank you for the many ways you have each blessed our Kirk family. We love you each dearly and honor you and Tom this day! The Savior lives and we will all rejoice in the day of Resurrection! I will be eternally grateful for the time spent in Canada with Pres. & Sis. Young. They are the finest people who loved without strings & genuinely worked to make a difference in the world. He used to tell me often “to be successful you need to work a lot of 8 hours days….8 am to 8 pm.” Thanks for sharing that & many other lessons with me. Much love to Sis. Young & all of your family.

Brother Young was a wonderful friend and neighbor. I have many fun memories that he afforded me. He took me flying in his twn engine airplane. Very cool. Often he and his family would take me skiing with them. I remember one trip he had forgotten his ski boots. We went to the Powderhouse and he bought a new pair of buckle ski boots. Up until then, we all had lace up ski boots. I was very happy for him. He and I would always say hello to each other. I felt like we had a common bond. Love to Dwan and their family. Bob Pearson
