

Todd Snow Richardson

September 8, 1959 ~ January 5, 2024

Todd was one of my favorite people in the ward. I was dismayed and surprised at his passing. Please accept my humble and heart felt condolences at this time. I will remember him with respect and admiration. May the Lord be with you and yours always, but especially close to you at this time of passage.

Rosalyn and family, I am so sorry to hear of Todd’s passing. Todd was a good friend in high school, and the best debate partner I could have ever asked for. He was a favorite of Maj Sylvester, and I was fortunate to ride his coat tails. He was always kind, considerate, brilliant and fun. I’ve so admired the loving relationship you’ve shared these 42 years. Your devotion to one another is a beautiful example for all of us to follow. May your many wonderful memories sustain you at this sad time. Love, Heidi

Todd, Your early departure from this mortal sphere has left an empty space in many, many hearts. It was a blessing to call you my friend, and often classmates since day one (k). Rosalyn, Though we have only met a couple of times over the years, my thoughts and prayers our with you, and your family.

I was saddened to hear of Todd's passing and wish to send my deepest condolences to Rosalyn and family. I was fortunate to have Todd as my friend in junior high and high school and well after our missions. I remember going to the ranch in Heber, playing tennis, working a summer together at Irving Junior High School, double dating, and enjoying conversations (sometimes heated) about everything. I was blessed with Todd's friendship at an important time of my life. His influence on me was for good, and I will be forever grateful.

Rosalyn, I was so sorry to hear about Todd's passing. I have let my dad and family know and he will be watching on zoom tomorrow. I have fond memories of pheasant hunting with Bill and Todd as well as riding horses up in Midway. May you feel comforted and blessed knowing you loved and served Todd faithfully and he loved you. Dear Ros, What a beautiful funeral service! Each one who spoke taught, and inspired us as they shared examples from Todd's life and of his faith. We know that this is hard, and he will be missed, but oh what a legacy he has left for all of us. We love this picture of the two of you in front of the temple on your wedding day. There is such hope in your eyes of a glorious future together. Because of our Savior and our covenants we testify that you will be together again and that hope continues to shine. We love you, Wendy and Toney Bentley
