I always enjoyed seeing him and his sweet wife at family gatherings. He will be missed by all who knew him. Love and hugs to the family.♥

Oh Christie, I am so sorry to hear about your dad. I have so many sweet memories of playing at your house out on Redwood road, and your dad was always so nice to me when I was there. I remember he was building that beautiful home for your family, and wanted to pay for it as he went, and that good example of frugality has stuck with me all these years. I remember playing in the hay in the barns and being struck with how hard he worked. And I remember hanging out in the piano room and thinking how important it must have been to him and to your mom to have you guys learn piano, so important that they finished that room before anything else in the house! And of course I remember the BARBIE rooms....and being so jealous that he allowed you to take over that whole unfinished house with doll houses....basically a whole Barbie town! So many happy hours we spent playing in that home, and then your mom would feed us (my favorite was when she made us Ramen noodles, haha!) and I just always remember feeling so welcome at your home. I will remember your dad as a man who was wise, hard working, and dedicated to the family he loved. God bless you all....praying you find peace as you miss him and remember him and the others you have lost too soon. &lt;3
