

Tracy Eugene Ellis

May 12, 1965 ~ December 24, 2024

Tracy was one of the best men I knew. It is literally because of his love and generosity that I wasn't homeless living alone on a curb. He brought me into his home with open arms and made me part of his family. He never let situational things change who he was. He set a good example for me and never forgot the importance of God in our lives. Somehow he always had a knack for knowing when needed to hear from him. I look forward to the day we meet again.

I remember Tracy when he was just 5 years old and I took a liking to him and gave him the nick name Sam which I called him the rest of his life. I was doing his taxes one year and his son asked him why did that guy call you Sam and we all laughed. Tracy had A good sense of humor and I managed to always keep him laughing. I will always remember him as a giving and caring guy and was always fun to be around. God bless you Tracy (Sam) I actually have a daughter that I named Sam after Tracy.

This makes me sad, a piece of my childhood and early adulthood is gone. Tracy was very influential in my life, I looked up to him so much as a young boy. I would often tell stories to my friends about my Uncle Tracy’s he was one of the people I most looked up to then. He may have given me my first can of chew and it certainly helped me avoid Copenhagen the rest of my life! I had nothing but love and respect for him and though I haven’t seen him for years, I think of him often. My prayers and condolences to my cousins and the rest of the family.

Dealing with loss is never easy especially when someone is taken unexpectedly. My condolences to the family, I'm sure Tracy has a smile on his face like always and is saying to all of us, " See ya later bud"

Uncle Tracey was one of the funnest, connective people I’ve ever known. As a boy he was by far my favorite uncle. The Christmas Party’s in Manti, him swimming out at Palasade in his Speedo, him telling me jokes the way nobody else could.. “ Hey boo boo, let’s go pick us some pickinick baskets, but Yogi I don’t thing Ranger Smith would like that Yogi…..” If you know you know. All my love to the family!

I’m so sorry to hear of Tracy’s passing. I knew Tracy long ago when we were kids. I liked going with my mom to get her hair done at Tracy’s mom’s house in kearns. Tracy and I would go and play in the backyard. My mom always wanted squeeze Tracy’s cheeks because of his dimples ha ha. Tracy was a really good guy! And he had a really good heart for people! He was part of my childhood! I’ll miss you buddy! R.I.P
