I don’t know why…I never met your little Truman in this life. But I think about him daily and know that he was here to bless us all in one way or another with his brief appearance. He is still with us, I feel him, but for some reason he decided to ditch the “glove” he was embodied in. I can’t pretend to understand the immense grief you must be embroiled in, but I though you might find a small reprieve in knowing your beautiful baby boy made an impact on a complete stranger. Lots of love and healing energy to you all…. Michelle

Ash and Brennan, Shaun and I have not stopped thinking about your sweet family since we heard the news of Tru's passing. You are both such amazing parents and such great examples. Look around for signs that he is with you, because he'll be there in both the big and small moments in your life watching over you. We love you and are continuing to pray for you! Love, the Marsh's

- Stephanie Marsh

Dear Ashley and Brennan, our hearts are broken with the news of Tru's passing. Ruth called to tell us and there were not words to express our feelings of loss. We just read the obituary penned for Tru. You found the words, none truer ever written. The spirit flows from the sentiments expressed, pure testimony. Thank you for teaching and exemplifying eternal truth. Your investment in Heaven is now total. I read once that every family needs a family member in heaven to work on behalf of their family on that side of the veil. This is true in many families. We pray heaven's blessings to be upon your mommy, daddy and brother hearts to feel his powerful spirit near. Our love, prayers, and admiration go out to you. Dear Gregory extended family, I was heartbroken to hear from Chelsie Earl (my daughter) of the passing of Truman. I know I am not part of your immediate family, but please know I am sending light and love to all of you at this very difficult time. Truman will always be near you in spirit and was a light to all of those he touched if only briefly. With love - Shannon

Ashley & Brennan, I just wanted to tell you how very sorry I am… I know there isn't anything I can say to ease your pain, but thought putting your names on the temple prayer role might help a little… Please know I am thinking about you !!!!

- Kreighan Duffield

We just wanted to send prayers and love and thoughts to your little family, from ours .We are LaRae Wallace's parents. We were just so so saddened to hear of the loss of your precious little Tru. He is beautiful! Now he's a beautiful baby Angel to watch over his earthly family . May God bless and keep You in his hands .

- Phil and Janet zobrist

We haven't been able to stop thinking about your family. Even though we barely know you, we'll be your neighbors in a few months and expect to know you well. We feel so much love and compassion for you already. We can already see what amazing people you are and we're heart broken for you. Our baby girl was due on the 25th and born on the 28th. We can't help but think that she was able to meet her would-be-neighbor-friend Truman for a few days. We decided awhile ago to name her Mette, but now it seems that maybe it's a reminder that she met Tru on the other side. Love and prayers as you go through the unthinkable.

- Kory and McCall Robins

I am absolutely heartbroken to hear of the loss of your beautiful baby boy. I pray that you will have the comfort and peace that comes with knowing this separation is temporary. I'm certain he will be watching over you from the other side, eager to be together again one day.

- Lisa Laws

Twice in our lives " the veil" is very thin and enveloping! The first year after our birth, and the last month of our mortal life! Truman' entire mortal life was lived enveloped within the veil! Surely there is a divine reason that he didn' t need the life's experiences that the rest of us go trough! His was a perfect life, filled with perfect love! All he neeed was the body to become like Christ! You, his earthly parents, must be uniquely qualified to have partnered with God to bring such a spirit into your home! HE WILL BLESS YOU AND YOUR FAMILY AS A SPIRITUAL GUIDE THROUGH THE ETERNITIES■■ He has set a high standard for you to follow for the remainder of your mortal lives! We thank you for sharing his story and his beautiful image with us! With love and prayers, Bob and Kristine Whitney

- Kristine and Bob Whitney

- Heather Freeze

What a beautiful, perfect little boy. The obituary was such a tribute to this special, little guy! It's hard to adequately express feelings in typed words. Know that our hearts go out to you and your entire family. The only thing we can do is pray and we will pray for your peace and comfort. Jan, Vaughn and the entire Beames family

- Jan and Vaughn Beames

My heart aches for the loss of your sweet baby boy with the brightest blue eyes and grown up hair! Words can never express the the sorrow or pain you are feeling . I am so sorry. There will be joy in the next life when you will meet him again. ❤■

My name is Breanne. You don't know me, but I wanted to reach out. My 2 year old son passed away June 9th suddenly. He is also buried at Larkin in the Garden of Everlasting Life. My husband and I were walking through the cemetery, trying to look at headstones since we had just met with Larkin to design our son's. I saw your beautiful boy's sign, and I just started crying because I know the pain you're feeling and hate seeing how often little children pass on. I also have an older son, Liam. He is 4 years old. He misses his little brother so much, and I'm sure your son misses his little brother just the same. He really is such a beautiful angel, and I just wanted to say I'm so sorry for your loss.
