

V. Rex Waltman

March 13, 1929 ~ November 16, 2021

My thoughts and prayers are with you. Sounds like he was a wonderful man. Sorry I never got to meet him. Much love to you and your family. Your friend Nel

- Nel Ekker

I was so sorry I missed Rex's service. So many great memories of being with the Waltman family. May our Savior's loving and comforting arms surround you all. It's so hard to lose a parent. I miss mine fiercely everyday.

- Sharon Nelson

I'm sorry for your loss. I have fond memories of many vacations with the Waltmans. My thoughts and prayers are with your family at this time.

Margaret, Susie, Julie, Chris& All, We hold you close in love…..so sorry that we can not be beside you….rejoicing that our beloved Rex is free…with our Heavenly Father!!! Love you all so….Angie & Eileens

- Angela Purcell

I knew Rex at the Deseret Gym. I verify all the good things mentioned in his obituary May the Lord continue to bless his family.

- Leon Heaps

We are sorry for the passing of your father. Lyle remembers golfing with him at the Homestead Resort. His smile and enthusiasm for life will be missed. May your many wonderful memories keep him close to you as you continue to live life. Prayers for comfort and peace.

- Lyle and Marie White

We send our heartfeltcondolences. May his soul in peace.

- Hanny Tjong

Margaret, thank you and Rex for being such good home and visiting teachers to my late mother Lois. She loved Rex’s stories about Meridian and the onions. When her grandniece moved to Meridian, Mom delighted in repeating his onion stories! I admire your loyal care of Rex. May the memories you shared enrich your life.

- Teddie Krause

Margaret, I am thinking about you. I will miss Rex, and seeing you. You were an amazing couple, and I will never forget you or Rex. Hang in there. Take care of yourself! Dr. Krutka
