

Vicki Bishop

September 24, 1948 ~ December 4, 2025

To all my Haynes friends, I am so sorry about Vicki. She really had a hard life! Jan and I were in Jr High when she had barely gotten married. Jan, you used to tell me about her! I have those memories. Chris, I showed her a listing once for you, I really enjoyed being with her, the oldest child of my favorite people! All the best to you and yours. So sorry I cannot make the funeral or viewing. I love all of you so much! Love always, Lis McConkie

- Lis Mcconkie

Thank-you for being so kind to me and letting me visit you loved talking with you I'll always remember you your laughter and your smiling beautiful face and yoyr house was always beautiful

- Melody Velasquez

She had an Exquisite taste for decorating. And a very good sense of humor. Her life would light up the room. I'll Miss hanging out with her whether it was watching a Jazz game or a movie that she loved father of the bride. Or just a simple TV series. Or a game that we would play 20 questions. She's always caring. I'm thoughtful and she'd love the candy that she would eat white chocolate or even cheesecake. Red velvet she'll be missed

- Jennifer marcus