My sincere condolences to all the family, Inga definitely was the light to all the kids around her and everyone knew she was around. Your laugh, your smile and your heart will be greatly missed. you gained your wings, but you will always be remembered. Fly high high mama but last but not least Rina I'm so sorry for the loss of your sis, its been sometime since we have seen or talked but just know that this is your hugs of comfort during this time. - Mercedes (Cedes)

Viola Fua'inga always welcomed me into her home with such love when I came to visit with my Dad, Marion Bushman and when I would come visit alone. She will be missed. I will think of you often as I always pass by your house on morning walks through the neighborhood. I had just walked past your house the other week with my husband. I smiled as I saw a party happening and I told my husband the sweet memories I have with your family. Come to find out that Sister Tukuafu had passed on soon after. We love you all!
