We miss our wonderful mother. We remember the fun, and happy mother, always serving us, with her beautiful comforting countenance. We love her dearly. With Love

Virginia taught me that God’s Green Earth can be an extension of mankind. Life can be created and sustained in the right circumstances. Plants from all around the would adorned her home. Virginia taught me that Goodness can be an extension of mankind. Goodness can be created and Sustained in the correct characteristics. With goodness from around the world she adorned herself.
