

Wallace Lynn Pinegar

March 24, 1926 ~ July 14, 2022

Just wanted to extend my deepest condolences for the passing of your father. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.

- Daniel Guthrie

Jeff, how fortunate you were to have such an awesome Dad. I guess the proverbial apple doesn't fall far from the tree. Condolences to you and your family. Nancy

■■■■■■ SAUDADES My American Father in Law - Lynn W Pinegar, our beloved "Grandpa Pinegar", almost 100 years old, left us to return to our Heavenly Father yesterday. ■ He is one of the most extraordinary human beings I've ever met. Honorable, a loyal Friend, honest, kind, a brave warrior, generous, sweet and strong, intelligent, good humored, a very tall athlete, pacient, wise, elegant in his down to Earth ways, steady in his faith in Jesus Christ, a wonderful architect, fluent in several languages including Portuguese, a hard working great provider, a faithful husband, a loving Father to his children and to all of us under his fold. He is the most exemplary and handsome human being that I've have had the honor to meet. Muito bom ter um sogro que amava o Brasil e os brasileiros, com quem eu podia conversar e me aconselhar também em português, língua favorita de nossas almas aqui na Terra. This beautiful Man will always be a very important influence as the Patriarch in our large Family, and for the thousands of lives he touched, specially of his mormon brethren who knew him at home in the USA, and in many countries where he traveled and where he was called to serve his divine earthly missions. I sincerely never found a single fault in this wonderful human being. He probably had some, but I didn't see any on display. Our Grandpa Pinegar ■ a shinning soul was called Home after being honorably discharged from his mission on Earth. We're all happy for you on your new journey - and proud of you, nosso Irmão Presidente Pinegar, um amado Pai e conselheiro para cada um de nós. ■■ But even knowing that Grandpa Pinegar has gone back Home, I feel the sadness of his sudden departure from us - as do all my children and John his son, as well as all his man children & grandchildren, our entire Family. We all love him. My heart goes out to Mary, our Grandma Pinegar, who shared most of her life as his wife here in this world and forever more - and who surely will miss him most of all. May the

Good Lord give you strength and confort for your heart at this trying hour ■ "Till We Meet Again" ■we will all miss our dear Grandpa Pinegar very much. ■■■ ■■■■■

O Presidente Pinegar, será sempre recordado, pela minha família. Era o Presidente, quando nós batizamos. O sorriso dele era contagiante e tão verdadeiro. Eu e a minha família, aquando de uma das nossas visitas a Utah, estivemos na casa do presidente Pinegar. O meu profundo pesar, a toda a família. Perdeu se um grande homem, com uma fé profunda e de muita bondade. Gostaria de estar presente, na homenagem. Envio muita força para a família. Ele olgará por todos vós. Os meus Cumprimentos Marisa Rodrigues Caleira

I adore Lynn Pinegar very much. He was a great friend to me and to every member of our Van Orden family who lived together in the same ward--first Holladay 13th Ward and then Olympus 4th Ward. He was a fantastic mentor to me when I was a teenager in high school. He was my family's caring bishop when my father Arthur passed away. He participated with my mother Lois and other returned adult missionaries from the ward in frequent gatherings. I had fond contact with Lynn and Mary throughout the years. I knew his children and cared for them a great deal. May the God of Heaven bring down peace and joy with the Pinegar family during this time of passing.

"Grandpa" has been a monolithic figure throughout his lifetime. Together with Grandma, he had an open heart and home. Caring deeply for not just his family, but also those within and without his community. He was willing to provide aid where possible, and a wealth of kind or wise words to share to provide guidance to and buoy the downtrodden. His presence will be undeniably missed, and I can only hope those that all that feel sadness at his passing also carry a lightness in their heart for all the good he has done. Both for them, and for others. I suppose I could have done without the 'mandatory' hair cuts while growing up, though.

When I was teaching primary, the children celebrated Bishop Pinegar's birthday with him. The children crowded around him because they felt the love he had for each of them and they for him. What a wonderful experience to watch such a kind, gentle, and caring man. My condolences to his family. He was a great man, father, and leader.

My condolences to all of President Pinegar's family. I met the pres. Pinegar in Portugal in 1975. I still remember the first time I saw him leave the mission house with his children. I seemed to have an angelic vision. His appearance and height impressed me a lot. When I later got to know him better I loved him very much, he was kind, lovable his heart was as big as his stature he was a true man of God. His departure leaves this world more impoverished. God bless him and his family. Jose Soares da Silva

Uncle Lynn was always so caring, kind and friendly. I will miss him as the last of that great Pinegar generation. He watched over all the Pinegar posterity with great love and care for which we are eternally grateful and better for. My Dad and everyone in the family looked up to him in every way. He was such a Christlike Older brother, loyal soldier and a true patriarch. His teachings by example did not go unnoticed by my Dad as a young boy looking up to him and have this been a great blessing to us through him. I have fond memories of him at our Pinegar Christmas reunions of him and Mary and family singing " Walk-in in a Winter Wonderland" and of his telling the story of the whistle in war torn Germany on. Christmas Eve. Thank you for your love and goodness dear Uncle Lynn. Thoughts of your reunion with all your family and your welcome home in heaven brings tears to my eyes. Our sincere condolences to dear Aunt Mary and each of the children and grandchildren. Love, Shelley Peterson (niece)

Dear Pinegar Family, What a great man Lynn was! I am grateful that I was able to work for him in 1973-74. I still remember him as a kind and patient employer and a great example of a faithful bearer of the Priesthood. Jeff, I am also grateful to have known you and worked with you in the office during that school year. We hope the coming week will be sweet as the family gathers and that you will find peace in remembering the great life Lynn lived. Doug Clark Kay (Pinegar) Clark

Whenever my mom wanted to point us boys to an example of decency and integrity, it was always Bishop Pineger. What a great man. Unassuming and kind. He was my home teaching companion and taught me a lot about service and doing what is right. He practiced what he preached. I'm grateful to him for his closeness to the Spirit and his blessing to me and each of my brothers. Last time I saw him and Mary was at my mom's funeral - I was grateful that they would take that time to mourn with us. I will miss his soft spoken truth.

I love the Pinegar family with all my heart! Lynn and Mary did so much for my parents and for our family in general. Lynn spoke at my dad's funeral 42 years ago. Thank you, thank you, Pinegar family for sharing Lynn and Mary with us! Best wishes as you continue to mourn this blessed man's death.

Lynn used to come into the shop and sweep up a few years ago and he would always come up and shake my hand and ask how I doing .He would most often give me a complement about my work. He was always smiling and friendly and would chat for a few minutes like I was an old friend. What a great guy. Glad I had the opportunity to meet him. I imagine he was a great dad and friend to all. I'm sure he will be missed. May God bless you in this time of mourning and send the comforter to buoy you up until you meet again.

My husband, Carvel Whiting, and I enjoyed watching the funeral service via Zoom. The talks and music were so inspiring. We felt such peace during the service of such a sweet man. We are thankful that my husband had the opportunity to work with Lynn on a project years ago for the design of a building, and Carvel always commented that he looked up to Lynn (in more ways than one!) Brother PInegar also made the design for the basement of our home many decades ago and we still live in this same place. It was uplifting to hear from the family today at the funeral of their amazing father who led such an exemplary life. May his wife and posterity all be comforted and feel the Savior's love at this time.

I remember Grandpa Lynn's gentle smile and voice when I visited his and Grandma Mary's house. Not only he cared about me, he always cared and asked about my family in Japan. When I talked with him, my heart was filled with warmth. More I learned about Grandpa Lynn, more fortunate and proud I feel that I'm part of his family. He was an excellent role model for so many people he met in his life. I and my family in Japan will dearly miss him.

What a beautiful service I witnessed and it reminded of the service of my father over 40 years ago in same church. Yes Lynn spoke at my father's funeral. Yes, all Arthur's children spoke and we all shared similar stories and yes, we all shed tears of live and happiness. The Pinegar's and Van Orden's lived a block away for so many wonderful years. Now they will be neighbors at the same cemetery. I'm sure they will be that again in heaven. Doug Van Orden

Dear Family, Lynn and I went to the same ward and the same schools through high school and played on the athletic teams together. Wish I had known about his funeral. Love and condolences. H Clair Searle.

My fellings are hard to say in words. I am an exchange student from Guatemala. I was at the Lynns family as exchange student. I am not sure if you remain me or even if you are the right Family. But I want you to know that my pray is for his soul and you, all the ones that now remain him with love. Best regards from Guatemala. Silvia Arteaga.
