

Wanda Louise (Dutton) Briggs

January 3, 1944 ~ September 13, 2023

Keeping Tammy and the entire family in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Peace be with you all as your mother/grandmother has moved on to be with her maker. With much love, Sarah Smith

- Sarah Smith

Tammy and family, Wishing you peace as you remember your mother and grandmother. May the next few days bring you together in love.

- Machelle Dahl

I am so sorry for your loss I really know what you guys are going through she is in no pain anymore she is with loved ones she was a wonderful aunt loved her alot I am praying for the whole family I hope that you guys are sent the comforter to help with the healing process I loss my husband Joe 17 months ago it is still hard wont heal completely but enough the lord takes the best love you guys alot and always have prayers from me always please keep you head high she can watch over all now

- Melodie ptacek

Aunt Wanda we will miss you we love you and you have a beautiful spirit please let Mom and Grandma know that I love them and I miss them and I'll be there as soon as my turn I love you all

- Amy Lynne Horton

We had the honor of helping to care for Wanda and know what a sweet mom and grandmother and beyond that she was. May peace be found in the sharing of wonderful memories and may her memory live long in the hearts of so many. With love, Suncrest Hospice

- Suncrest Hospice

Sending my thoughts and prayers to your family. At this heartbreaking time.. I’m a step sister to your mom, my dad was Robert Dutton Would love to talk Heatherg@apexsalesandmarketing.com

- Heather Dutton Griffiths