

Wilford Lieber Sr.

February 26, 1928 ~ April 2, 2021

Dear Lieber family, My deepest sympathy and condolences. I shall remember Wilf as a sympathetic and hospitable man who opened the doors of his house for my mother and me in 2003. We were total strangers to him and Mary Jean but nevertheless we were welcome to join my Uncle Gerard and Aunt Ineke. It was a wonderful time, we never felt strangers in the company of Wilf and Mary Jean. I got to know them both as warm hearted, caring and loving people with smiley faces. Dear family wishing you strength!

This is just a correction for the condolence submitted by Marianne E Burton. At the end of my remarks, I forgot to add: With much sympathy, Stephen and Marianne Burton

- Marianne E Burton

We extend our heartfelt condolences to Liz and to the Lieber Family. We enjoyed a pleasant friendship with Mary Jean and Wilf when they moved into our neighborhood. They were always most kind. After Liz became Wolf's devoted wife, we were pleased to be able to become acquainted with her, as well, and appreciated her sweet spirit. We pray that you all may be comforted.

Wilford touched my life while I was a teen in the LDS Wasatch 2nd Ward enjoying the Boy Scouts activities with him as the leader! As I write I see him in my mind in the late 1960s dressed in the uniform, and directing us long-haired, rowdy, rebellious punks. No doubt that patience ran deeply in Wilf along with his many skills, talents, and strengths and virtues. I hear his voice with a distinctive and (to me) admired Swiss accent as he lead us through a particular tour of the State Chemists Department where he worked at the time; and I recall the realization occurring to me that there was so much more to the depth of this man's life and knowledge than merely the "guy in the Scout Troop" and the dad of the kids living just a few houses up the street from my family on Bryan Avenue. To the Lieber Family I express my fond memories of your father and, of course, affection toward all of you. All my best wishes at this tender time.

Once I got judge well by the people who knew my father. I did not get to know Wilford Lieber Sr, but his son. By the character of his son, the president of our Hanzhou Branch I can see how a person Wilford Lieber has been. I wish to express my condolescenses to Lieber family while assuring and adding my simple knowledge that one day we all see eachother again. If you need me for anything , I am always here…. Marcelo

Dear Lieber Family, Our condolences for you loss, Wilford and Mary Jane were wonderful neighbors on Hiawatha. He was always kind and made raising teens easier. I will always remember the talks sitting on the bench in his front yard by the fountain. Our life was enriched by our time as neighbors.

Dear Lieber and IDFL family, I had the pleasure of meeting Wilfred in the late eighties and early nineties when I first joined the family business. I always came away with the feeling that I had spent some time with an honorable man and the world is the better for having someone like him in it. His departure is keenly felt. Our deepest condolences to the Lieber family and everyone at IDFL. Charles Hyland.
