"Uncle" Bill made everything fun! He has always made it easy to choose to smile and always seemed to be grinning himself. I'm grateful for his jovial influence and being such a great family friend.

Oh Bill, I have so memories. My most memorable were the times with the ponies. Bill would catch them for us, then I'd try to not get bucked off. I came up from Las Vegas for the first Punch and Judy parade. I had the best times at Lincoln Lane and Bill was always there to tease. ❤■

BILL WOULD ALWAYS REMIND ME IF WE WERE THE SAME AGE HE COULD TAKE ME.. I NEVER DOUBTED I'D TOUGHNESS.. I WAS TOLD BY A CLOSE MUTUAL FRIEND THAT IF HE EVER HAD TO GO TO WAR HE DEFINITELY WOULD MAKE SURE TO BRING THE JUDY BROTHERS.. BILL WAS FULL OF SO MUCH KNOWLEDGE ABOUT GAS WORK HE WOULD SOMETIMES GET HIMSELF INTO TROUBLE BECAUSE HE WOULDN'T BACC DOWN WHEN HE KNEW HE WAS RIGHT.. HE WAS THE NUMBER 1 ONE UPPER TOO.. IF YOU SHOT A BUCC HE KILLED ONE WITH HIS BARE HANDS.. AND IF YOU EVER WANTED TO SPREAD A RUMOR TELL BILL AND HE’LL GET THE BALL ROLLING.. NOTHING BUT GREAT MEMORIES OF THE GUY.. SPOKE OFTEN ABOUT HIS FAMILY.. GOOD ALL AROUND DUDE.. REST IN LOVE BILL JUDY.. LAST OF A GREAT GENERATION..

Uncle Bill, I use that term loosely but so did my parents, or he might have given that name to himself. He was there for some of my fondest childhood memories. Our yearly New Years Eve parties with Michelle's home made pizza, so much confetti we couldn't see the floor and Bill with his relentless teasing. I have a pretty clear memory of him hanging Mike over the stairs by his ankles. But of course my favorite times were those days on the deer hunt. He introduced me to cool ranch Doritos with Salsa, which is still one of my favorite treats and more importantly he made me listen to country music for 6 hours straight on the drive home one year. It was a painful experience for a 16 year old girl, but I eventually came around to the country music side I just needed time. I loved hearing him tell stories about my parents and their whole neighborhood gang growing up. A few years back I told Bill every time I hear Toby Keith's song, "As Good As I once Was" I thought of him because of how tough everyone said Bill Judy was growing up. I secured my spot as favorite fake niece with that conversation. I truly feel so blessed to have grown up with all The Judy clan and the few times a year we spent together. Bill was always the life of the party and made everyone feel good abut themselves or embarrassed by his teasing, both were fun experiences. Michelle, Corinne, Brandon and Brett and all of you families praying for your peace and comfort, I hope we can still see you on the hunt every once in a while. Sending our love.
