I know how much Cort was loved and was truly the center of everyone’s lives, especially his “second Dad” David. We pray for peace in your hearts and trust that he is truly in a better place waiting to see each of you again when the time is right. Through David, I followed him as a child, growing into a special young man as David shared his successes which were many in his short life..

There are no shortcuts through grief, only a path, along which our Lord himself has walked and will walk with you with his gentle strength. I am praying for your peace and understanding. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Matthew 5:4 Love, Bridget J

Kurt and Cindy I know this world will not be the same without Cortland and we will miss him very much so. But we will have to move on and live the life that he wants us to do so. I know we we see him on the other side one day and we will be graced by him and the lord.i know death is a hard thing to cope with, but we can not give up on life, Cortland would want us to keep on going.

- Jeremiah Dobson

Cindy and Kurt, I don't know what to say. I know Linda has been there for Cindy. We will both be at the service. I love all the pictures you have posted. Cort was a special soul. May the Lord's spirit comfort the whole family during this difficult time. God bless you all. Jim

Dear Cindy, Words cannot express my sorrow of the loss of your wonderful son, Cort. I remember how thrilled you were to bring your precious baby boy home to two big sisters. Though it has been many years since we were neighbors, wonderful memories come to mind of raising children together. Cort was a tender and devoted son. May you and your girls find peace in your memories of him and the love that you all shared. Carolyn Madson
