What a beautiful tribute! You were so lucky to have had Winnie for eleven short years, but she was lucky to have all of you too! She lived a good happy life! I bet she will be dancing with the angels, teaching other girls how to put on their makeup and scoring goals in heaven! ■■■■■ Love to all of you!

- Jeri Hamlet

Our family sends our deepest condolences. Drew was in Winnie's class and he was touched by her goofiness and kindness. He has told me how smart she was and loved when Mr. Wild would call her Winnie the Wolf. He remembers playing soccer with her at recess and thinks she had such a great "touch." She came over to our house once and she was so respectful and fun. We hope you feel her light and love always and send you all of ours during this difficult time.

I don't know Winnie or your family, but my grandson does. As someone who tragically lost a granddaughter, my heart stopped for a moment when I heard of your tragedy and I felt the ache of loss again.
