

Gloria L. Arnone

August 27, 1934 ~ July 15, 2020

Thanks for being a fantastic grandma! I'll always miss the laughs we were able to share. Condolences to everyone for their loss.

- Levi Arnone

My condolences to the Arnone family. I grew up next door to the Arnones in the 1960s. I remember Aldo and Gloria as the owners of Aldos restaurant. I still remember the food, it was awesome, especially the breadsticks. Rest in peace Mrs. Arnone.

Aunt Gloria was one of a kind. Always generous with her time, she became a second mother to me and my sister when we came from Italy. She made sure we were properly Americanized. She was a lot of fun to be with, ready for anything. We will all miss her, but the memories are there. We love you, Aunt Gloria.

Pete and I ate so sad to hear of Aunt Gloria''s passing. Pete remembers all the good times with the family. He has been in poor health with dementia over the last few years, but we are thinking of all of you at this sad time. We've been in touch with Frances and hope to see you all soon. Love and hopes for good memories to comfort you. Gloria was quite a lady!! Love. Ann and Pete
