

Elizabeth Anne Price

March 19, 1984 ~ May 14, 2020

How we love cute Elizabeth! We will miss her friendly greetings at family parties, trips to Chuck a Rama, and laughing about funny happenings on Daniel Boone and Little House on the Prairie. She leaves a hole in our hearts that can only be filled when we greet her again in heaven! We are grateful to be part of her eternal family. We love you Elizabeth!! Love, Uncle Sterling and Aunt Elizabeth

- Elizabeth Bennett

We love and will miss Elizabeth! We're praying for your family and hope we can give you all a big hug soon!

- Katie Montgomery and family

Elizabeth was such a joy! I loved calling her on her birthday, and listening to her stories at the cabin! Sending all my love to you and your family in this difficult time. She will long be remembered, and always absolutely adored. We love her and we love you! Many patatera are being sent your way!

- Ashley Christensen

Rest in Complete happiness and Love beautiful Lizzy!! Ofa Lahi Atu from my little family to you all Price family, your Lizzy is gone but will forever and always be remembered■■ Love you guys so much!

- Nia Tuai (Koli)

Ray, Bob and I were so sorry to learn about the passing of your sweet Elizabeth. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your whole family at this sad time. Thinking of you all, Bob and Jane Renwick

- Jane Renwick

How I grew to love Elizabeth. For eight years she was my student at East High. Elizabeth came to my class at the age of 14 and left after she turned 22. During those eight years Elizabeth delighted me with stories about Jesus, being a princess, and her longing to be a mother. If she heard a siren she would jump up and run to the window. She was kind and gentle and always remembered her classmates and my birthdays. She was also fiery and could get so angry with me. She once told me, “You’re too mean to be a grandma!” I recall some of our struggles as I worked to teach Elizabeth boundaries and acceptable behavior. But in the midst of our struggles there was always a beautiful woman inside Elizabeth that yearned to be seen. I can honestly say I was able to see glimpses of the wonderful beautiful woman Elizabeth truly was amidst some of her time with me and I will always feel proud and humbled that I got to be a part of her journey. I am deeply saddened by her passing. I will always remember her fondly and all her quirky sayings like “Don’t you think that’s right?” I know she is now free of her earthly body that made Elizabeth’s like here a challenge. I know she is a beautiful loving spirit now and will always watch over her loving family. I would like to express my love and gratitude to Ray and Anne for their support during Elizabeth’s time with me and to her siblings that I got to know and love as they served as peer tutors in my classroom. I send you my love during this hard time. I hope the memories you all share of Elizabeth will bring you some peace in the time ahead.

- Terrie Rauzon

How I grew to love Elizabeth. For eight years she was my student at East High. Elizabeth came to my class at the age of 14 and left after she turned 22. During those eight years Elizabeth delighted me with stories about Jesus, being a princess, running to the window when she heard a siren, and her longing to be a mother. She was kind and gentle and always remembered her classmates and my birthday. She was also fiery and could get so angry with me. She once told me, “You’re too mean to be a grandma!” I recall some of our struggles as I worked to teach Elizabeth boundaries and acceptable behavior. But in the midst of our struggles there was always a beautiful woman inside Elizabeth that yearned to be seen. I can honestly say I was able to see glimpses of the wonderful beautiful woman Elizabeth truly was amidst some of her time with me and I will always feel proud and humbled that I got to be a part of her journey. I am deeply saddened by her passing. I will always remember her fondly and all her quirky sayings like “Don’t you think that’s right?” I know she is now free of her earthly body that made Elizabeth’s like here a challenge. I know she is a beautiful loving spirit now and will always watch over her loving family. I would like to express my love and gratitude to Ray and Anne for their support during Elizabeth’s time with me and to her siblings that I got to know and love as they served as peer tutors in my classroom. I send you my love during this hard time. I hope the memories you all share of Elizabeth will bring you some peace in the time ahead.

- Terrie Rauzon

Dear Ray & Ann, It’s been sometime since we have spoken, but our hearts go out to you in the loss of your daughter. Losing those you love is difficult, but we have felt comforted by the knowledge of the atonement of Christ. We pray for your comfort and this blessing by the spirit. Sincerely, Ken & Ellen Jones

- Ken Jones

We are really sorry. You are in power prayers, and we trust that you will see her agin. Much love, Maisa and Juan Carlos

- Juan Carlos Negrette and Maisa Gomez

We had the privilege of being teachers in an Institute class with Elizabeth. She could always make us smile and often made us laugh. Rose would often sit next to her and enjoyed listening to her earnest and excited comments, interspersed with, "Is that good?" or "Don't you think?" Our favorite interjection was "High five!" We were impressed by her faith and her memory for scripture stories. We could always count on her to remind the rest of the class what happened in different scripture stories. She was the only member of our class who came to our wedding. We so appreciated her coming and taking photos with us. We are happy for her because we know she is whole and free from all the limitations of her earthly body.

- Rose and James Thomas

I have a vivid picture in my head of Elizabeth as a young girl following behind her beautiful mother and leading her sisters, all in their Sunday best. She looked like an angel. I am so sorry for your families loss and grateful the Elizabeth had such strength and fierce love surrounding her through the battles she fought. I also came across her grandmother Jane's obituary when searching for Elizabeth. How fitting that your first daughter also carried her sweet grandmother's first name. Sending love to your family.

- jennifer Cardinal

How I loved your Elizabeth - what a treasure she is! I got to be with Elizebeth when we were young at Grandma Prices and then we reunited at Hillside Jr. High and at Highland High School. She would always smile and hug me in the halls and was someone I so looked forward to seeing. I also loved having her come to our ward when she was visiting and felt connected to her as I was updated through Lynn over the years. She holds a special place in my heart and always always will! All my love and prayers to her dear family. McCall Knowlton Nelson

- McCall Knowlton Nelson

One thing I will always remember and love about Elizabeth is her enthusiasm in telling me stories during family parties, and her frequent high fives. We love Elizabeth, and miss her deeply. We look forward to being with her again some day, and are praying her family can feel comfort and peace.

- Sarah Janis and Family