So sorry for your loss.... Zac and I taught Primary together for a year or so back in 2010-2011..... I loved the time spent talking with him and after giving a 10 min lesson the rest of the class time was spent trying to solve all of the worlds problems.... always loved listening to him

Zach, you have been and will continue to be an inspiration to me. Your mind is so keen and your wit razor sharp and hilarious! As I think back to my time working with you I will always cherish the times we were worked side-by-side with the Grand Rapids team and the Financial Management (Finance and Accounting) Group. Thank you for being both an amazing colleague and an incredibly good-hearted friend. There has never been a doubt how much you love Ali and your boys! You will always be a positive influence in my life to help me strive to be a better person! Thank you!

I worked with Zach at CHG many years ago, and always loved working with him. Zach was always easy going, but could make us laugh with his quick wit and humor. I always looked forward to Halloween, to see what Zach would dress up as next. The highlight was Richard Simmons. My condolences to all that loved Zach, I am so sorry for your loss.

My friend of old, you will be missed. Our My Two Dollars reunion we joked about will have to take place in a different spot. I hope that you found your silvertown. I know it had been a while since we last talked, but wish that I could've been there for you. RIP my friend.

I was just thinking about what a good friend Zack was to me when I moved out west to Utah from Pennsylvania, and was kind of the only friend I had my freshman year at UVU in a new state. I lost touch with him after my mission. But today just thought to try to connect or do a search on the internet. I found this obituary and was deeply saddened to see we lost him. In college, I had my older brother but outside of family I had like 2 friends in Utah. I met Zack through rock climbing. And he helped me learn what to expect as I got ready for a mission. He gave me confidence that I needed in college. We climbed in the gym a lot and did a roadtrip to Joshua Tree in California where we got in trouble with the ranger for camping in a non-designated spot. Zach handled it really well with a laugh and some smooth talking. . I remember thinking I could easily beat him in a wrestling match in our back yard at a house we were renting in Provo. I was wrong. Despite him being lighter and shorter than me, he pinned me in a cross face cradle in less than a minute. I asked for a rematch twice more, and he showed it wasn't a fluke by pinning me faster each time. The guy could really sing. I looked up to Zach and still do. I want his boys to know that their Dad was strong and tough and kind and humble and inspiring to me. I think I have some videos from my old camcorder of him climbing a big boulder. Have the grand-parents Call or text me at 720-785-0273. And I can send them over.
