Nadine Oldroyd Ward

June 18, 1934 ~ December 29, 2016

Our loving mother, grandmother, great-‚Äògrammy' and friend passed away on December 29, 2016.

Nadine was born June 18, 1934 in Provo, Utah, the youngest child of Joseph Nelson Oldroyd and Virginia Davis.

In her youth, she met and married Delbert Bruce Ward in May 1957. They resided in SLC where they raised two daughters.

Nadine graduated from East High School in Salt Lake City. She earned her Bachelor's Degree from The Holy Cross Nursing School, followed by a Masters in Psychiatric nursing from the University of Utah. Her working years were spent in this profession at the VA Hospital in Salt Lake City.

Nadine loved being surrounded by family and friends. She enjoyed life to the fullest and was always ready for a new adventure. She loved to travel, work in her garden, read and attend the opera, the symphony and many plays. She volunteered in many capacities in the LDS church and enjoyed serving in the Salt Lake Temple in her later years.

She is survived by her daughters: Terri (Lynn) Winterton and Sharon Ward, as well as five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Nadine is also survived by her siblings: Hazel Raymond, Gloria Fisher and Keith Oldroyd. Nadine was preceded in death by her husband, Del, and sister, Helen Wilson.

The family will receive friends on Friday, January 6, 2017 from 7:00-9:00 PM at the Larkin Sunset Lawn, 2350 E. 1300 S., Salt Lake City, Utah. Interment will be at Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family would like to suggest that you please consider a donation to one of her favorite charities, the ALS Association, the Utah Symphony or the Utah Opera Company.
